

RUSSIAN AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE

Russia is no exception from other major markets. Like Europe, it requires Medical Device Manufacturers without a local office to designate a Russian Authorized Representative.

Alliance Medical will serve as your contact point with the various authorities in Russia such as Customs and Rozdravnadzor (RZN), providing you with all the necessary support needed for regulatory matters.

Why select Alliance Medical as your R.A.R?

- › Without an office in Russia, you will need an applicant for your regulatory. On your behalf, we will make sure that all your submitted documents are done properly.
- › We will obtain your original Declaration of Product Conformity certificate, and provide a copy to Russian customs when necessary.
- › You can put our name, address and phone number as your Russian contact point on all labeling, packaging and IFU.
- › We will coordinate product recalls or any other requests from the Russian authorities.
- › We will manage inquiries for event to be reported and assure proper correspondence with authorities.
- › Assuring that all certificates are valid and conform to the authorities' requirements.

By choosing Alliance Medical as your independent authorized representative instead of one of your distributors, you will have all the flexibility to make modifications in your distribution channels. It will save you time and money without having to reprint all labels and obtain new certificate or declaration of conformity.
